Considering a new Kitchen...

Do you know you will probably only buy two kitchens in your life time. So it's important that your new kitchen includes everything to suit your changing lifestyle needs. Do you love to cook? Is space an issue? We have all the skills and expertise in Kitchen design, cabinet making and interior design.

Getting started...

To get started we need some basic room measurement. Just sketch out the key measurements shown in the example overleaf. Once you have done this, it will also help if you can take a photo of the space.

Let your imagination go...

Our showroom is designed to fire up your imagination. We have combined all the latest style's, trends and interior accessories into our kitchen displays, helping you visualise and create your dream kitchen.

What happens next...

Once the information is received, our sales team will call you to arrange an appointment to visit our showroom and experience your personal showroom consultation.

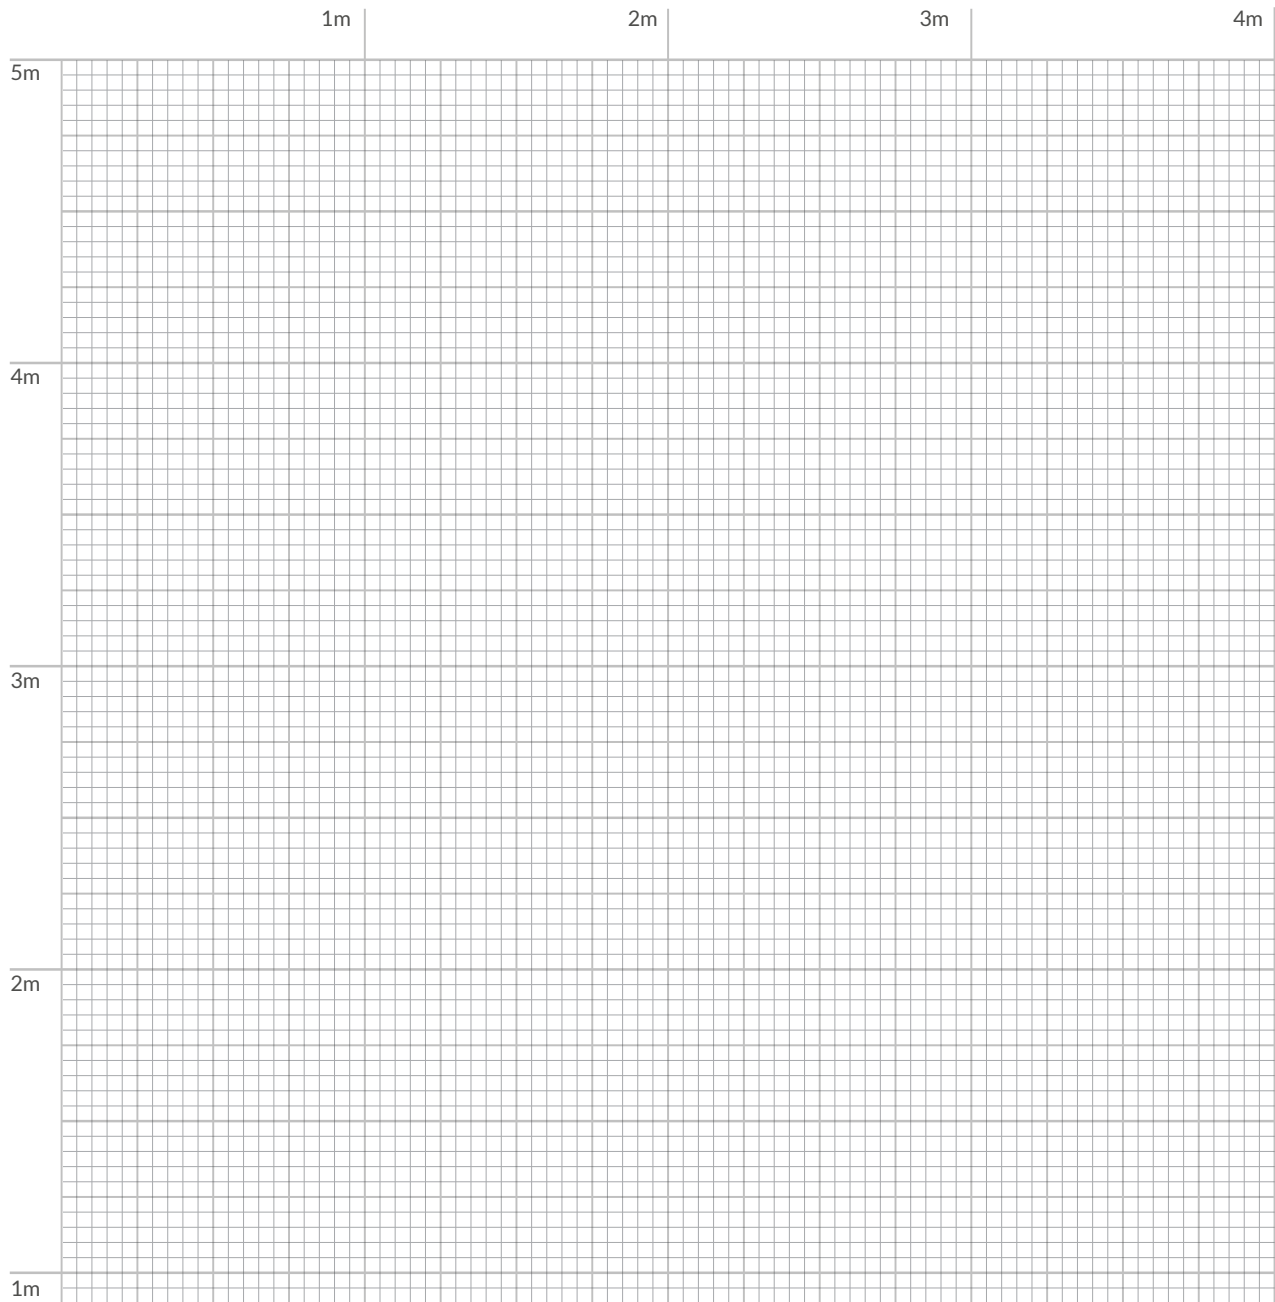

Is Electrical or Plumbing required? Yes No

Your Contact Details:

We just need a little bit of information so that we can keep in touch over the course of your kitchen project:

Sketch your kitchen

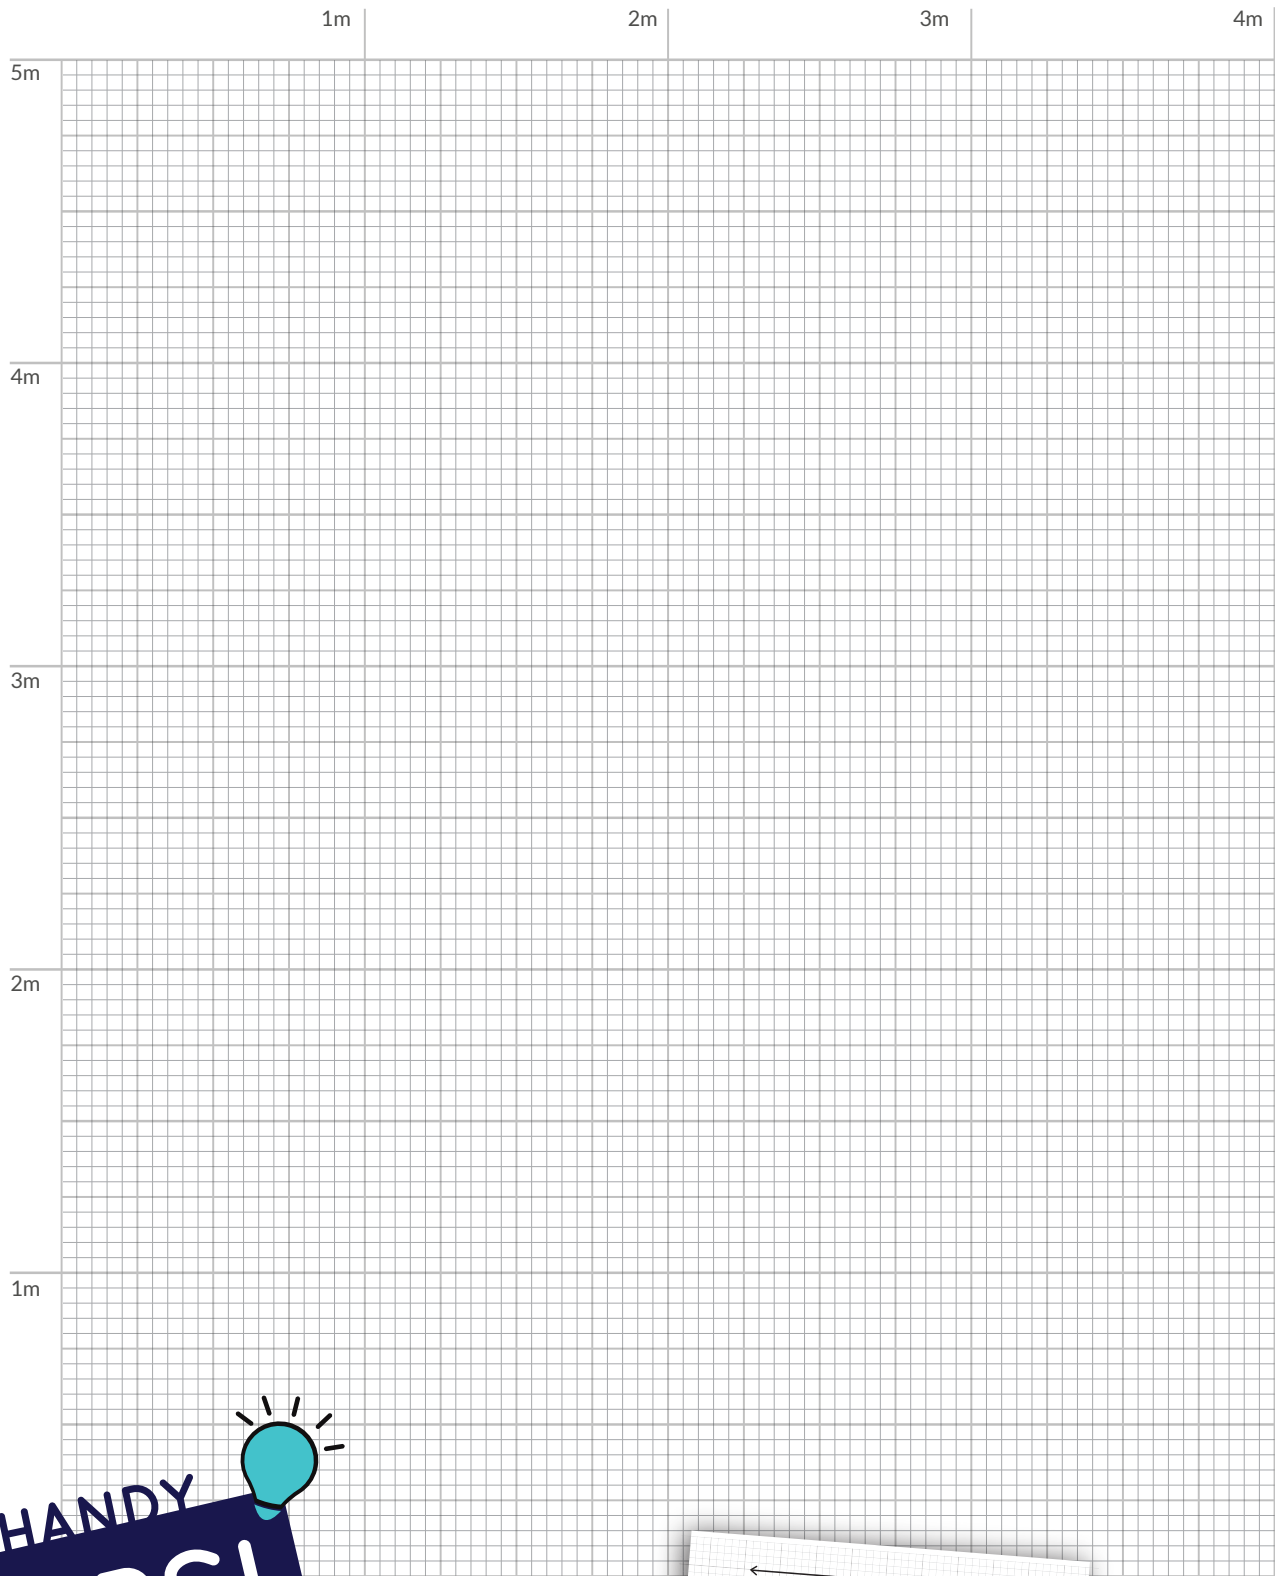

Roughly sketch out your room shape

- Measure the length and width of your room
- Don't forget to measure your windows too
- Sketch where your existing sink and cooker are
- Highlight any pillars, bulkheads etc.
- Include position and measurements of radiators/boilers too
